

PARENTING FOR JANNAH

MOMMY'S DUA BOOK

COMPILED BY ZULIAT LAWAL

liamanah

Asalam alaykum,

Becoming a mother is one of the greatest joys of a woman. Our children are both a gift and a trust (amanah) from Allah.

"We have enjoined on man kindness to his parents; in pain did his mother bear him, and in pain did she give him birth" (46:15).

The Prophet (SAW) said, “ Paradise is at the feet of the mother.”

Oh what a blessing and a responsibility too. We carry a great responsibility in raising a family, not only in caring for their physical needs, but also in educating them in their religion and morals.

So how do we go about it?

We start first by making Dua.

Dua is worship and the weapon of a believer.

The Prophet (SAW) said; Three supplications will not be rejected (by Allah (SWT)), the supplication of the parent for his child, the supplication of the one who is fasting, and the supplication of the traveler. (At-Tirmidhi – Sahih)

Allaah loves to be asked, and He encourages that in all things. He is angry with the one who does not ask of Him and He encourages His slaves to ask of Him.

Allah says “And your Lord said: “Invoke Me [i.e. believe in My Oneness (Islamic Monotheism) and ask Me for anything] I will respond to your (invocation)” (40:60).

Some Etiquette for making Dua

1. Believe in Tawheed with regard to the divinity, Lordship, names and attributes of Allah
2. Sincerity towards Allah alone in making dua
3. Ask of Allah by his beautiful names
4. Praise Allah as He deserves before we call upon Him
5. Send blessings upon the Prophet (SAW)
6. Face the Qiblah
7. Raise both hands together humbly before Allah
8. Have certain faith that Allah will respond and focus with proper presence of mind
9. Ask frequently
10. Ensure food and clothing are halal
11. Say dua silently and in secret

Best Times to make Dua

There are certain times dua is more likely to be accepted by Allah (SWT) as mentioned by Prophet (SAW). These times are as follows

1. When it's raining
2. The last third of the night before Fajr Prayer
3. Upon waking from sleep
4. Between the time of Adhan and Iqamah
5. After making wudu
6. In prostration
7. Before finishing the Prayer (after conveying blessings on the Prophet)
8. After the Prayer (especially the compulsory Prayers)
9. An hour on Fridays, especially between Asr and Maghrib Prayers
10. Ramadan: Before breaking the fasting, the last ten days, and the “Night of Power” (Laylat Al-Qadr)
11. The first 10 days of Dhul Hijjah
12. While drinking the Zamzam water
13. When faced with adversity
14. At the crowing of a Rooster
15. While travelling
16. While visiting the sick
17. When in a gathering for the purpose of remembering Allah
